

REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF DECEDENT'S PERSONAL PROPERTY

DECEDENT NAME:

CORONER CASE #:

RELEASE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY OF THE DECEDENT: Pursuant to Probate Code 330, the Coroner may deliver the tangible personal property of the decedent in the Coroner's possession to the decedent's surviving spouse, relative, or conservator or guardian of the estate acting in that capacity at the time of death. However, such property shall not be delivered if the Coroner knows or has reason to believe that there is a dispute over the right to possession of the property. Delivery of the property by the Coroner does not determine ownership of the property or confer any greater rights in the property than the recipient would otherwise have and does not preclude later proceedings for administration of the decedent's estate. The Coroner is not liable for loss or damage to the property caused by the person to whom the property is delivered.

REQUEST FOR RELEASE OF PROPERTY AND WARRANTIES: As required by Probate Code Section 330, by signing below, you warrant that you are a surviving spouse, relative, or conservator or guardian of the estate acting in the capacity at the time of death. You further warrant that you are entitled to possess the property of the decedent in the Coroner's custody, and that there is no dispute over the right to possession of such property. Under penalty of perjury, you declare that no other person has a superior right to the interest of the decedent in the described property. You are requesting release of the decedent's property to you, or to someone you designate (such as a funeral director or mortuary), as follows:
